Join us for all things Harry Potter, just in time for Harry Potter Day on November 15. We will have backup crafts for those who missed the first wave. All materials will be provided. You might even find a fantastic beast or two. You will also have the opportunity to make a patronus. Stop by your local library on social media. Stop by your Timberland library for your own sorted at Hogwarts, and cast your patronus.

Watch for the signs and say goodbye to the winter blues. The benefits of light therapy include fighting off fatigue, sleep disturbances, and mood disorders. Some studies show that EF lights can help fight those pesky winter blues. One light therapy lamp will be available at each location to checkout for 3 weeks (no renewals or placing of holds) on a first-come, first-served basis.

Libraries in Aberdeen, Ocean Park, Salkum, Tenino, and Yelm are offering a pilot program for local patrons to help combat those pesky winter blues. One light therapy lamp will be available at each location to checkout for 3 weeks (no renewals or placing of holds) on a first-come, first-served basis.

Check out the first installment of "Harry Potter Day\'s Moving Staircase" in the search bar to discover videos of local patrons sharing their favorite memories of the wizarding world. For more information visit TRL.org and share your memories with our Facebook page to join the conversation. You\’ll also find some great reads and fun, easy crafts at the "Harry Potter Day\'s Moving Staircase\" event page.

NaNoWriMo is a fun and exciting way to challenge yourself. Use your imagination, your library, and your skills to write 50,000 words (approximately 175 pages) during the month of November! You can join a Saturday Write-In at the Library and enjoy light refreshments provided by Timberland Regional Library. You might even find a fantastic beast or two. You will also have the opportunity to make a patronus. Stop by your local library on social media. Stop by your Timberland library for your own sorted at Hogwarts, and cast your patronus.

Have you experienced our "Veterans History Project?\" This grant-funded partnership with our local colleges enables us to hire students to help collect, archive, and provide access to personal veterans stories that you can either watch online or listen to on your device. The stories will be preserved on the Library of Congress Archive of American History website, available to researchers, students, and the public.

Contact the Library one week in advance. All Timberland programs are free and open to all. If you would love to have your help in planning for the future, please contact Trisha Cronin, TRL District Manager. The future of the area depends on us! You are important to Timberland Regional Library! We would love to have your help in planning for the future.

For more information visit TRL.org and see what we\’re doing to help our community members to earn their diploma and become more competitive in today\’s job market. The "Veterans History Project,\" explained Trisha Cronin, TRL District Manager, is the result of a partnership with our local colleges and the Veterans History Project of the Library of Congress.

This is a fun and exciting way to challenge yourself. Use your imagination, your library, and your skills to write 50,000 words (approximately 175 pages) during the month of November! You can join a Saturday Write-In at the Library and enjoy light refreshments provided by Timberland Regional Library.

Discover your family roots using a wealth of free genealogy tools and resources from your Timberland library. Use Ancestry Library Edition for free at any Timberland library location, and access other free genealogy tools and resources on your own personal device. Some of the benefits of light therapy include fighting off fatigue, sleep disturbances, and mood disorders. Some studies show that EF lights can help fight those pesky winter blues. One light therapy lamp will be available at each location to checkout for 3 weeks (no renewals or placing of holds) on a first-come, first-served basis.

Check out the first installment of "Harry Potter Day\'s Moving Staircase" in the search bar to discover videos of local patrons sharing their favorite memories of the wizarding world. For more information visit TRL.org and share your memories with our Facebook page to join the conversation. You\’ll also find some great reads and fun, easy crafts at the "Harry Potter Day\'s Moving Staircase\" event page.

NaNoWriMo is a fun and exciting way to challenge yourself. Use your imagination, your library, and your skills to write 50,000 words (approximately 175 pages) during the month of November! You can join a Saturday Write-In at the Library and enjoy light refreshments provided by Timberland Regional Library. You might even find a fantastic beast or two. You will also have the opportunity to make a patronus. Stop by your local library on social media. Stop by your Timberland library for your own sorted at Hogwarts, and cast your patronus.

Have you experienced our "Veterans History Project?\" This grant-funded partnership with our local colleges enables us to hire students to help collect, archive, and provide access to personal veterans stories that you can either watch online or listen to on your device. The stories will be preserved on the Library of Congress Archive of American History website, available to researchers, students, and the public.

Contact the Library one week in advance. All Timberland programs are free and open to all. If you would love to have your help in planning for the future, please contact Trisha Cronin, TRL District Manager. The future of the area depends on us! You are important to Timberland Regional Library! We would love to have your help in planning for the future.

For more information visit TRL.org and see what we\’re doing to help our community members to earn their diploma and become more competitive in today\’s job market. The "Veterans History Project,\" explained Trisha Cronin, TRL District Manager, is the result of a partnership with our local colleges and the Veterans History Project of the Library of Congress.