Native American Heritage Month

To Celebrate Native American Heritage Month, artist Ovila Mailhot, Coast Salish (Sto:lo and Nlaka'pamux Nations) graphic artist and designer, created our newest library card.

November is a time to celebrate rich and diverse cultures, traditions and histories, and to acknowledge the contributions of Native people. Native American Heritage Month is also an opportune time to learn about tribes, to raise awareness about the unique challenges Native people have faced both historically and in the present; and how tribal citizens have worked to conquer these challenges.

Visit our Celebrations webpage for staff-selected resources that highlight the voices and perspectives of Native people; check them out! #nativeamericanheritagemonth

GROW A READER

An early reading engagement activity for children 0-6 years and their caregivers.

CRECE UN LECTOR

Una actividad de lectura temprana para niños 0-6 años y sus cuidadores.

Grow A Reader

Keep track of the reading journey you and your child embark on with Grow A Reader, Timberland Regional Library's reading engagement activity. Pick up a reading activity log at your local branch, designed by Washington state author and artist, Nikki McClure. This can serve as a keepsake to remember favorite book titles shared together throughout your child's preschool years. Copies available in English and Spanish at all locations. Special thanks to Olympia artist Nikki McClure for her artwork and generous support of her local library!
